

Marcella Post

Marcie Post has been a member of the City of Midland staff since 2008. Marcie was recently named the Assistant Director of Public Services for the City of Midland and before that, served as Recreation Manager for the City of Midland's Parks and Recreation Department since 2008. A real-life Leslie Knope, she is responsible for the management of the Parks and Recreation Office, departmental programming, and the associated recreation facilities. Marcie possesses an extensive resume of recreation experience, having previously served as the parks and recreation director for the City of Clare and recreation supervisor with the City of Livonia as well as roles with organizations including The Parade Company, Yellowstone National Park, and the Michigan Department of Natural Resources (DNR).

Marcie is involved in a variety of local and statewide professional organizations: currently, she serves as an At-Large Board Member for the Michigan Recreation and Park Association (mParks), Marketing Chair for the Midland Soccer Club and President of the Midland Amateur Sports Capital Committee.

Marcie holds a bachelor's degree in community and commercial recreation and a master's degree in parks and recreation administration, both from Central Michigan University (FIRE UP CHIPS!). She lives locally in Midland with her husband and two children. In her spare time, Marcie enjoys running and playing sports, camping and spending time with her family.
