LifeMap & Art Class Updates

Exciting things are happening at the Arnold Center! Our Kaleidoscope Art Class and LifeMap (previously known as "CLS Class") Class have been up to so much fun! Since the recent move into new classrooms located at Blessed Sacrament, the individuals in LifeMap have been taking adventures out into the community and becoming more familiar with the free or low cost services and activities the Midland has to offer!

The Art Class has also been up to so much fun! Whether it's finger painting or journaling, Kaleidoscope uses different approaches and mediums to make sure that all individuals take something away from the class!
