

Kyle Fahrner

Kyle, a life-long Mid-Michigan resident, graduated in 2006 from Saginaw Valley State University with a BBA in Economics, then attended the Northwood University Richard DeVos Graduate School of Management, graduating with an MBA in 2008. While attending Northwood University, Kyle worked as a special needs tutor and proctor for 2 years.

After completing graduate school, Kyle started working as a Treasury Analyst in the Treasury and Portfolio Management department of a local bank. He is currently a Vice President at Horizon Bank and his responsibilities are in the Municipal Finance department. In 2015, he became an adjunct professor of Finance at Northwood University, teaching undergraduate courses in Corporate Finance.

Kyle and his wife Tina have lived in Midland since 2009. He enjoys the outdoors, golf, and is an avid reader and movie fanatic.